ARE ALL EYES

DEFECTIVE?

Certain it is that many people experience no trouble with their eyes. Naturally a very large proportion of those who consult opticians or oculists have defective eyes, because the trouble they have leads them to the consultation.

There have been quite a number of people in to see me of late who have nothing at all the matter with their eyes.

If you have any doubt as to the condition of your eyes it will afford you a great deal of satisfaction to know positively. I shall be glad to tell you.

THE FIRST STUDENTS.

Honor Men at Bingham School.
Football Notes.

Correspondence Telegram
Bingham School, Mebane, N. C., Oct. 12.—The students who stood first in their respective classes for the month ending October 2nd were as follows:

Mathematics—Hamilton, Poby, Sturgis, M. K. W. Davis, Taylor, Long, Council, Buchanan, Mease, Suggs, Lagrange and Oldham.
Science—Kirkpatrick Johnston, G. Turgis, Buchanan, Hedrick and Cooke.
English—Hamilton, Muller, Robey, Council, B. Brhardt, Southerland, Fais in, McKee, Boone and Powell.
Latin and Greek—Oldham, Berohardt, Brenizer, Murray, Council, Davis and Hedrick.

Bible and History—Connell, Davis, Powell, Snathers, Johnston, P. Walker, Southerland, Murray, Brantley, R. Davis, Hamilton, Murray and Snathers.
Physical Culture—Robey, Heath, H. and Boone.
Shorthand, Typewriting and Telegraphy—Robey, Allison, Johnson, P., and Cooke.

Pennmanship and Bookkeeping—Boone, Flanagan and Sturgis.
Last Monday night an old-fashioned candy pulling was given by the literary societies and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Some of the loveliest young ladies from the surrounding country were present and everybody seemed to have a good time. The entertainment was held in the large dining hall of the school, which was handsomely decorated with palms and ferns.

The boys returned from Guilford College highly pleased with the courteous and hospitable treatment received there. The football game was close and exciting from beginning to end. Both Guilford and Bingham got one touchdown and the score was five to five but Guilford kicked goal and won by a single point. Neither side scored in the first half and the ball was generally kept by Bingham in Guilford's territory.

WANTS HIS OVERCOAT.

A Tar Heel Boy Reaches San Francisco From Manila.

Sam Burgin, brother of F. A. Burgin, of this city has reached San Francisco on his return from the Philippine Islands, where he was a member of the 18th United States Signal Corps stationed at Manila. His brother late yesterday afternoon, received the following telegram from him:

"Presidio, San Francisco, Cal., October 11, 1899.

"F. A. Burgin,
"Greensboro, N. C.
"I arrived here on the 9th. Please express my overcoat. Notify mother that I am well."

John B. Stetson Company,
Philadelphia.

Gentlemen:
My first sales this morning were two of your "Bosses Edge" hats. Both of these customers were wearing Stetson hats and the trademarks on the leathers showed that one was sold in Johannesburg, South Africa, and the other sold in Buenos Ayres, Argentine Republic.
You must be selling hats all over the known world.

Very respectfully,
John Porcher.
Stetson's world famous hats are advertised today by Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees. They sell lots of them in the City of Flowers.

You can get a pair of fit you now. On account of some very lively selling in men's shoes we got badly out of sizes in our special calf and vicid kid at $2.25, $3.00 and $3.50 last week, but we received a large shipment of these Saturday and can furnish any size you want from 5 to 11 now in tan or black either. THE SOUTH AFRICAN WAR

Has Begun, Though no Actual Conflict is yet Reported.

A NATAL TRAIN HAS BEEN SEIZED

By the Boers—British Agent at Pretoria Takes His Departure Accompanied by His Staff.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM
London, Oct. 12.—A dispatch from Ladysmith says the Boers have occupied Ladysmith and are pouring into Natal.

CROSSED THE BORDER.

Durham, Oct. 12.—It is expected the Boers will capture New Castle today. The Transvaal troops have crossed the border of Ladysmith at Renobas Pass, Natal station. They were seen by Natal station, who retired. An attempt will probably be made in the course of a week to invest Ladysmith. The Boer force numbers four thousand.

BOERS RAID NG ZULULAND

London, Oct. 12.—It is stated the Boers have been making raids in Zululand, seizing the cattle of the Kaffirs. It is believed that these raids have made the restless burghers anxious for war.

The highest British civil and military authorities believe that the Boer army has not invaded Natal.

GERMANY NEUTRAL.

Berlin, Oct. 12.—The Cologne Gazette says that while Germany will observe the strictest neutrality, the government hopes that police corps of Ulster will be formed, not to fight, but to guard foreign mining property. The Gazette adds that the amount of Transvaal scrip in the hands of Germans and French is far greater than that held at London.

BOERS DESTROY BRIDGE PIERS.

London, Oct. 12.—News is received that the Boers have destroyed three piers of the bridge at Komatje Poort, on the Komatje river.

BRITISH AGENT LEAVES.

Pretoria, Oct. 12.—Coryneph Green and staff yesterday afternoon bade farewell to Kruger and then took the train for Cape Town. The Transvaal government has ordered all disreputable characters and unemployed natives to leave the country. Transient travelers are allowed to remain. Englishmen are transported to the frontier free of charge.

THE TROUBLE BEGINS.

London, Oct. 12.—Dispatches from Durban confirm the report that the Orange Free State seized a Natal train that was leaving Ladysmith yesterday morning for Harpersmith. It also stopped a train yesterday afternoon. All the rolling stock of the railroad has been ordered down the country out of reach of seizure. It is understood that telegraphic communication with the Transvaal ceased punctually at five o'clock yesterday afternoon. Transvaal train. It now seems that the Boers intend to form in two columns, the Transvaal forces working from the north and the Orange Free State warriors from the west, the object being to keep the British forces at Ladysmith and Dundee occupied while a portion of the Boers slip past and destroy the British railway forming a line of communication. The British at Durban and at Natal have advanced their base at Pietermaritzburg and the front.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

Col. Olds Thought Graham Was Spencer Blackburn.

Special to THE TELEGRAM
Winston, Oct. 12.—It transpires that Col. Olds' interview, published in the Charlotte Observer and to which Spencer Blackburn replied in a column and a half article, was a case of mistaken identity. Col. Olds has been in the Observer this morning calling Mr. Blackburn's attention to the conversation had with him at the depot in Greensboro a week ago. The gentleman to whom Col. Olds was talking is Mr. J. L. Graham, of Wilkesboro, who looks very much like Mr. Blackburn. The latter is here today and has written to Col. Olds telling him of the mistake. Mr. Graham says he saw Col. Olds, talked with him, and expressed himself in favor of the amendment.

THE WIND STILL SLEEPS.

Yacht Race Declared Off Again. Heavy Fog.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM
Sandy Hook, Oct. 12 (10:00 a. m.)—The Columbia and Shamrock are approaching the line in a heavy fog. Wind about four miles. Good wind expected this afternoon.
At 11:30: Race declared off.

Boothblack Drunk.

About two o'clock this afternoon loud lamentations were heard in the alley which runs by the Telegram office and on going out we found one of the street boothblacks looking like he had been in a prize fight. Blood was freely pouring from his mouth and nose, and he reeled as he sat on the ground. When asked what were his troubles he said a "whole gang of niggers" jumped on him.

Police men came passing, and on investigation found that the boy was very drunk and that in a scuffle with some other boys he fell and mashed his mouth against the ground.

Frank Brown says he has perfected his patent on the trunk strap.

T. R. Thomas and C. K. F. Ascer, of Gotham, were guests of this city yesterday.

W. H. Ragan and D. L. Clark represented High Point in Greensboro yesterday afternoon.

Editor J. D. Newton, of the Thompsville News, passed through last evening enroute to Troy.

We learn that a trial over a horse is scheduled to take place. The particulars in the case are quite amusing, and no doubt the trial will be interesting.

The boys had some fun at the depot last night trying to get a goat, which was to be sent to Durham into a box.

"Hilly" was very anxious to leave town, and kept his head and hind feet in working order.

D. B. Bodenhamer, the liver man, had the misfortune to lose a horse from a colic last night. The animal was driven to Greensboro and back, and was taken sick soon after its return. Mr. Bodenhamer has lost several nice horses in this way in the last few years.

C. Tucker and son, of Memphis, Tenn., trainers for P. L. Rillard, Jr., arrived here last night on No. 38 with twenty-one dogs and went out to Mr. Lott's farm to receive on J. H. H. dog's farm three miles from here. The dogs are in fine shape and there will be some good work done.

There will be light entries for the Eastern and Continental fluid trials.

According to announcement in yesterday's paper the Kellum-Hix nuptials were solemnized in the Baptist church last night at 8:50 o'clock, Rev. Dr. J. B. Richardson performing the ceremony. The marriage was a very pretty one. The bride and groom are popular among their friends, all of whom wish them bon voyage through life. Allow us to extend best wishes for a happy and prosperous career.

Alvin Seacrest runs a saw mill at the Snow Lumber factory. That it is quite a dangerous undertaking was forcibly demonstrated yesterday when a plank, which was started in wrong, was thrown back with considerable force by the machine, striking him just over the abdominal region which, for the time being, made it difficult for him to get his breath. He is in a pretty bad shape, but thinks he will be all right in a few days.

An Opportunity.

The Fishlake-Katz Co., Inc., are having a phenomenal run of trade over their 60 cents on the dollar out to effect the prompt winding up of their business. They were compelled to accept deliveries on suits and overcoats on orders given in April and May, the firms who had the orders refusing to accept the cancellations on the ground that the goods had been manufactured for them before the cancellations. Among those deliveries is a line of black worsted and imported black chevrons, satin lined, and satin lined black in lion overcoats. They come in suits, slacks and regulars, and if you are a stout man, a slim man or have an average figure you will be fitted to a nicety. Everything in hats, furnishings and suits at 60 cents on the dollar. An early call will be to your advantage. The Fishlake-Katz Co., Inc., are open from 9:30 a. m. until 7:30 p. m.

Home Sites.

We are not offering to sell small lots but House Sites, 100 feet front by 200 feet deep, in a section free from stagnant water or other unhealthy surroundings, on a beautiful elevation, high, dry, and shaded.

The terms are so easy that two or more tracts may be bought together, affording as large grounds as may be desired.

Remember the day and date, Tuesday, October 17, at 3 o'clock p. m. Hacks will leave McAdoo House and Court House Square promptly at 2 o'clock sharp.

SENATOR JAMES K. JONES

Greeting His Many Friends at Washington.

THE ALEXANDRIA CENTENNIAL.

Many Citizens and Officials From the District Will Attend.

Other News.

Special to THE TELEGRAM
Washington, Oct. 12.—Senator Jones who has just returned to Washington, will spend several days before returning to his home in Arkansas. His son has returned from the state, but the senator and Mrs. Jones will remain here until the former recuperates from his trip. The senator received many calls yesterday, and it is said that he appears much improved by his trip abroad.

Senator Jones has kept well informed regarding the political situation in this country while abroad, and he is in a position to give the democratic managers much advice concerning the campaign in the various states this year, but as to advising the leaders of the party, as his advice may be sought, it is not probable that he will take any active part in the campaign. It is not his intention, so far as could be learned yesterday, to speak in either Ohio or Kentucky. He is much interested in the campaigns in Ohio and Kentucky, and also in Maryland and he is hopeful that the democracy may win in all three states.

He is particularly interested in Maryland and Kentucky. He is hopeful that both Gorman and Blackburn may at some future date be returned to the United States senate. In Ohio, he says that what advice he has received lead him to believe that the democratic party has a very bright prospect of electing McLean governor.

After spending a few days here Mr. Jones will return to his home, and it is his present intention to remain until the assembling of congress in December when he will return to the National capital.

Hon. Tammell Elliott, former congressman from the Richmond district of Virginia, was in the city Wednesday, stopping at the Metropolitan Hotel. Mr. Elliott says that the outlook all over the State is favorable to the re-election of Senator Martin, and he does not believe that Governor Tyler stands any show of coming to the United States Senate at the present time.

Ex-Congressman Jones, of the first district, was in the city the other day, and was reported as having stated to his friends that the chances of Governor Tyler had become hopeless, and that he would take no further part in the pending national campaign. The friends of Congressman Jones deny these statements, and say that he still continues to support Tyler for the Senate until the legislature elects a United States Senator.

Quite a large number of Washingtonians will go to Alexandria today for the purpose of attending the centennial of the city of the Virginia City. The town has made preparations for the entertainment of a large number of visitors, and quite a number of Virginians passed through Washington yesterday. The arrangements for the centennial have all been completed and an elaborate program has been prepared.

The District commissioners and a number of other District officials, will go to Alexandria for the purpose of taking part in the centennial. Among others who will go to Alexandria are a large number of members of the local press, and also of the members of the Congressional Gallery. The visiting press will be entertained at the Bachelor's Club during the day.

Much interest has been taken in the yacht races at New York, though very little betting has been done here. Heretofore whatever betting has been done in Washington has been at slight odds in favor of the Columbia. Yesterday, however, it is said that the betting was on even terms here that the Shamrock would win the first race, and slight odds were being given that the Columbia would win out the series.

At Drivers', on Pennsylvania avenue, where most of the betting is done in Washington, several bets were announced Saturday.

Mr. E. R. Fishlake, a prominent merchant of Greensboro, North Carolina, is in the city visiting relatives. While here he is the guest of his brother, Dr. S. A. Fishlake.

Senator Blackburn, who has been in Washington for several days, has returned to Kentucky, and will remain in the state from now until election day. He says that the chances of Gove's election are becoming brighter. The ex-senator is also confident of a democratic legislature, which will mean his own return to the United States senate.

DECISIVE BATTLE EXPECTED.

The Hope of a Peaceful Settlement in Venezuela Ended.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The navy department today received a dispatch from Commander Hemphill of the Detroit, at Puerto Cabello, which confirmed the report that all hope of an understanding between the government and the insurgents of Venezuela had been abandoned and that a decisive battle might be expected at any time.

THE PEACE PARTY GAINING.

Caracas, Venezuela, Oct. 11.—The peace party is gaining ground. The government troops have been ordered to retreat on La Victoria.

BETTING ON COLUMBIA.

She is Yet the Favorite With American Sporting Men.

New York, Oct. 11.—The outlook for a race between the Shamrock and Columbia tomorrow is none of the best. Ever the hitherto optimistic weather bureau will not promise a breeze. The racing agreement calls for a start every week day from this time on, so that there is a possibility of the fate of the up being decided this week.

Looking as fine as two fiddles tuned up to a coo pitch, the Columbia and the Shamrock lay quietly at their moorings all day with their tenders close at hand, the tugs standing by for a call. During the early morning hours the fog was even thicker than on Tuesday, but when the sun came up toward noon the fog cleared away under the influence of a light breeze from the south southwest.

The cover was taken off Columbia's mainsail just before noon and it was given a thorough overhauling and drying. The new club topsail was also looked after and the running gear inspected fore and aft.

The utmost confidence in the American yacht prevails among her crew. Many of them have wagered a month's wages on her, and all agree that she cannot be beaten.

Captain Barr has little or nothing to say, but he also, the sailors say, has no thought of anything but making Columbia cross the finish line first in every race.

Sir Thomas Lipton was as cheerful as usual, full of hope for a breeze tomorrow and full of confidence in the Shamrock's ability to lift the cup.

At the New York Stock Exchange offers of 10 to 8 on Columbia found no takers. There was no money backing the Shamrock in the hands of commission brokers.

Money at the New York Yacht Club and other clubs has found no Shamrock takers and the Columbia seems to be a favorite yet with American bettors. Betting has been even 10 to 3 and 10 to 6 today, in Columbia circles, but no money is ready from the opposition and no betting of account has been done. One 5 to 4 bet in hundreds was recorded at the Hoffman House, but all the other centers have no reports of wagers.

In an interview with former Commodore James D. Sullivan, of the New York Yacht Club, he said: "There is little difference between the boats, if there is any, and from what I have seen of their sailing qualities thus far, I should prefer Shamrock. I believe that Shamrock is the most dangerous challenger that the New York Yacht Club has had for a contestant since the America brought the cup over to us."

A HEAD-ON COLLISION.

This Morning—Two Passengers Reported Killed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Mattawan, Oct. 12.—A disastrous head-on collision occurred this morning on the West Shore Railroad, south of Cornwall, on the Hudson. One of the trains was loaded with the Newburg firemen's organization, bound for Middletown to attend the firemen's convention. Two passengers are reported killed.

Head Cut by a Falling Box.

"Jimie" Smith, who works for the Southern Tobacco Co., suffered a painful accident yesterday. Tobacco boxes were piled high about him and in some way one became dislodged from the top and it fell, the corner of it striking Mr. Smith on the head, cutting a gash through the scalp to the skull, about an inch long. The wound bled profusely.

Dr. C. Robertson dressed the wound and the patient is doing well. There is nothing of a serious nature about the injury and Mr. Smith will soon be well.

Another New Firm.

Messrs. John W. and Everett B. King have bought the stock of goods of Mr. E. P. Land, Lindsay's old stand, and will close out the groceries and open a wholesale and retail tobacco and cigar store. It is a splendid stand, the Messrs. King are business men and will no doubt make a big success of the venture. They have our best wishes.

He Advocates Publicity.

Washington, Oct. 11.—President Spencer, of the Southern Railway Company, testified before the Industrial Commission today. He announced himself as opposed to discrimination on the part of railroads to shippers, and said he believed the remedy was to be found in the enforcement of the clause of the Inter-State Commerce law requiring the publication of all rates. He also advocates the abolition of the pass system.

It is the business policy of the Provident Savings to give the assured their insurance at the lowest possible cost to them, instead of building up a monumental surplus, in which they do not participate, but for the possible benefit of those who never contribute to it.—The Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21st, 1899.

ENGLAND AND THE BOERS.

The Richmond Times, which is ordinarily a level headed paper, has gone wrong. It conceives the idea that the people of the United States do not generally understand very clearly the quarrel between Great Britain and the Boers. The Times thinks it is gratifying to the American people to learn that our state department and the president have both made declarations which show England that she will have the heartiest sympathy of this country in the expected war.

The Times says:
"It is very clear that England is the Transvaal's sovereign, and the ground of dispute really is whether her sovereignty is to be respected, or whether it is to be fought as the Boers please. Undoubtedly, the complaints of British subjects in the Transvaal are producing a marked effect in England and upon the mind of the English cabinet, but at last when she marches her soldiers upon the Boers, it will be for the purpose of compelling unconditional submission to her authority, and as the contest has assumed that shape, she must fight it out to the last stage, or her own existence will be at stake. She can no more permit one single Boer to dispute her authority, than she could permit the Englishman who dwell in Kent county to do so. There is in effect a rebellion in her Boer territory, and that rebellion must be crushed with British authority cheerfully recognized and submitted to, or England, herself, must go out of existence."

The question at issue is whether England has a title to the South African Republic, or whether the Boers are a free and independent people. I the Transvaal is a province of Great Britain, the queen's government, in the light of international law, is justified in forcing the Boers to lay down their arms. But we think our esteemed contemporary is mistaken in its statement that "England is the Transvaal's sovereign." The independence of the Boers was recognized by Great Britain in 1852. Though in 1877 the Transvaal was annexed by the British government, in 1880 the Dutchmen shouldered their rifles once more, defeated the British at Majuba Hill, and a treaty of peace followed in the same year, by which they gained their independence, subject to only a shadow of suzerainty by the British government. And now as the years roll on the greedy English have begun a strong encroachment upon the rights of the sturdy Dutchmen, by the shameful franchise movement. The Boers, who prefer death to being trampled upon, have risen to arms once more.

And now our esteemed contemporary is wrong again, we think. The Times remembers the firm and positive notice of John Bull to continental Europe that it must keep hands off in our war with Spain, and thinks that America must support England, morally and physically, in her war upon the Boers. Concluding its editorial, the Times observes:

"If we could permit continental Europe to take part with the Boers against England, we would be impeding democracy and liberty. And it would be our turn next, for if the autocratic subjects of continental Europe could crush England, as in their secret hearts all of them wish to do, our turn would come next. We should then have to fight for our existence against them all. The European autocrats look upon our democracy as a menace to their existence, and they rightfully look upon it so. The emissaries of our free institutions, with school book in hand are knocking at the doors of their fortresses, and it will not be long before they will have battered them down. England's cause, therefore, in this contest is equally our cause, and all mankind must take notice that if there is any attempt to combine against her, the United States have got to be reckoned with, as well as England."

We feel pretty positive of the fact that the American people are not gratified at the action of the president and the department of state in this matter. We believe the majority of the people are unequivocally opposed to burying England and crushing these struggling, Christian Dutch farmers, even as they are opposed to their own government fighting the Filipinos. The Boers have as much right to resist the oppression of Great Britain as the American colonies had in doing so a century ago.

And in regard to England lending us her moral support in our fight with the Spaniards, we are sure the obligation on our part does not extend to upholding of a bull-dozing government in an unjust war upon a struggling colony of weak people who have a clear title to their lands.

The dispatches say that numerous Americans in the South African Republic have gone to the border to fight for the transvaal. That sounds all right. Let the true American always stand by the weak.

Wireless politics would be a great thing.

GOEBEL ATTACKED.

Former State Senator in a Letter Demands His Withdrawal.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 9.—C. J. Bronson, former state senator and member of the constitutional convention, has issued a letter tonight to J. C. S. Blackburn, as chairman of the democratic state campaign committee. The letter has created a tremendous sensation.

Bronson is the man whose zeal for the re-election of Blackburn to the United States senate nearly caused a riot, and the governor called out the state troops. Bronson is a power in state politics, and his bolting of Goebel means more than any recent move in Kentucky politics. The gist of the letter is contained in these extracts:

"I have just read the letter of Mr. Goebel to Mr. Carlisle of date May 23, 1890, and, knowing me as you do, it is scarcely necessary for me to say I cannot now speak for Mr. Goebel on any condition. To do so would be a gross violation of all self-respect and a sacrifice of all personal honor and, in my humble judgment, disloyal to the best interest of the democratic party."

"Recalling, as I do, the memorable contest in the General Assembly of Kentucky in the spring of 1890, and especially the treachery to you, and through you to the party which had chosen you as its candidate, of Mr. Carlisle and his followers, I am simply horrified at being forced to know that Mr. Goebel, with whom I was so intimately and constantly associated, was then harboring the intent, immediately upon the adjournment of the Legislature and while your race was still pending and the cause for which we were so desperately fighting was still held in the balance, to at once rush into the arms of his bitterest foe and unite with him in making your success and the principles embodied in your race impossible."

"I will not indulge the presumption of even suggesting to you and your associates that all self respect, party pride and personal honor demand that Mr. Goebel's name should, by the party organization, be stricken from the ticket, and a loyal, upright and honest Democrat and pure man put in his place."

"Upon your conscience and judgment that responsibility must rest. Yet, if you as the recognized leader of Democracy in the State, and the Hon. W. J. Bryan as the leader thereof in the nation, to both of whom, and especially to you, my loyalty is attested by devotion and self-sacrifice without limit, still insist that the Democratic party shall become participants in such perfidy, I, as a humble member thereof, cannot concur by indorsing such indisputable treachery and faithfully the best interests of that party and its motto insure its future success."

Many a man who can't afford to wear a collar around his neck will pay five cents for one on a glass of beer.

No one is proof against embarrassment. A porous plaster is an unemotional thing, and yet it is sometimes taken aback.

Mother—"Willie, how dare you take all the playthings away from your little brothers and sisters?" Father—"Let the boy alone, Maria. Maybe some day he'll grow up to be the head of a great trust."

Blobs—"What has become of that socialist friend of yours, the one who was always shouting that the only government was self-government?" Slobbs—"Oh, he got married, and found out differently."

Boxing Professor (admirably pointing out one of his pupils)—"There's a boy who would give the best of 'em a battle but for one thing." Visitor—"What's that?" Boxing Professor (slyly)—"He's tongue-tied."

"I'll never go out with the two-headed lady again," remarked the fat woman to the living skeleton. "Why, she attracted everybody's attention in the street car by quarreling with herself as to who should pay the fare."

To fool's loquacious we did say: "You're talking through your hat." But now punomatic brains have they, And punctured ones at that.

Eat plenty. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat. It cures all forms of dyspepsia and stomach troubles. E. R. Gamble, Vernon, Tex., says: "It relieved me from the start and cured me. It is now my everlasting friend." Howard Gardner.

The Sure La Grippe Cure.

There is no use suffering from this dreadful malady if you will only get the right remedy. You are having pain all through your body, your liver is out of order, have no appetite, no life or ambition, have a bad cold, in fact are completely used up. Electric Bitters is the only remedy that will give you prompt and sure relief. They act directly on your liver, stomach and kidneys, tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new being. They are guaranteed to cure or price refunded. For sale at C. E. Holton's drug store. Only 50 cents per bottle.

ROBBERY IN DURHAM.

Big Haul Made of General Carr's Jewelry.

Durham, Oct. 11.—Some time last night, Somers Villa, the beautiful palatial residence of General J. S. Carr, was entered by burglars, who made a rich haul in diamonds and other jewelry. The value of the jewels carried off is estimated at from $3,500 to $4,000. Nothing was known of the robbery until this morning, and there is no clue to the robbers.

The beautiful home of Judge Robert Winston, Eldon Hall, about half a block from General Carr's home, was also visited by burglars, but for some reason the robbers left the case of stolen jewelry in the yard and it was found by one of the servants this morning. Both robberies are shrouded in mystery.

Among the jewels carried off from the residence of Gen. Carr was a diamond stud valued at $1,000. This stud was taken from the general's shirt front, which was in his bedroom. He heard no noise during the night and did not know that he had been robbed until he was up dressing this morning. The following is a partial list of the other jewelry: Mrs. Carr's watch, valued at $750; Gen. Carr's watch, valued at $500; a pair of gold cuff buttons, set with diamonds, belonging to General Carr; a diamond scarf pin, diamond brooch, diamond ear-drops, a watch chain, used for fastening a lady's watch to her dress, etc., belonging to Mrs. Carr.

The great mystery about this robbery is that the house was fastened up securely as usual last night, and the morning there was no sign, beyond the missing jewelry, to show that any one had entered the house during the night. Every door and window was fastened apparently just as it was left the evening before.

There is a division of opinion as to whether the work was done by professionals or local men. Some think that Gen. Carr was followed home from his recent trip north by some professional burglar, who secreted himself in the home yesterday and then chloroformed the family last night, and the balance of the jewelry was taken. Gen. Carr says he was feeling bad this morning and thinks that chloroform might have been used. Chief of Police Woodall thinks that the job was done by local men.

The stolen jewelry will not be very easily disposed of, at least a portion of it will be hard to handle. The diamond stud was a registered stone and was stolen from Gen. Carr during the world's fair, but was found by some of Pinkerton's detectives eleven months afterwards. His watch is of peculiar design that will be easy to trace, and Mrs. Carr's watch was also of unique design with Gen. Carr's picture engraved into the case. Some of the other jewels will also be easy to identify.

The robbery of Judge Winston's home is shrouded in equally as deep a mystery; only it is known that the robbers left the home by way of the front door. This door was left standing open. How an entrance was effected is not known. When the family arose this morning it was found that Judge Winston's watch and a watch belonging to his daughter were missing. A search revealed the fact that two necklaces, two scarf pins and Mrs. Winston's jewel case were also gone. Soon afterwards one of the servants found the stolen jewelry in the back yard near a side gate. The finding of this jewelry deepens the mystery, as no one can figure why the jewelry was stolen and then thrown out into the yard.

The police are following everything that looks like a lead, and a great effort is being made to get the robbers and the valuable jewels.

DIRELIT NEAR LOOKOUT.

A Schooner Believed to be the Carrie A. Lane.

Beaufort, N. C., Oct. 11.—Captain Sabiston, of the schooner Hettie J. Dorman, lumber laden from Bogue Inlet, bound north, passed on October 9th, seventeen miles south of Cape Lookout light, bearing northeast by east, a large direlit, with nothing but a single mast and a foremast standing, a flag pole aft, but no flag attached, apparently abandoned. There were no signs of life on board.

Capt. Sabiston lay her part of the night. Then a wind sprang up and before morning he lost sight of the schooner.

The direlit is supposed to be the schooner Carrie A. Lane, lumber laden, which was lost off Frying Pan Shoals during the recent gale.

The wind has been prevailing from the northwest since past week. If it should shift to the southward the schooner would drift to the beach.

It is the business policy of the Provident Savings to give the assured their insurance at the lowest possible cost to them, instead of building up a monumental surplus, in which they do not participate, but for the possible benefit of those who never contribute to it.—The Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21st, 1899.

BLACKBURN'S PREDICTIONS.

He Says That Goebel Will Be Elected by Between 25,000 and 30,000.

"Since I last talked with you," said Senator Blackburn to a representative of the Post at the Normandy, "all the changes that have occurred in Kentucky have been in favor of the regular Democratic ticket. The strength of the bolters has dwindled by degrees until it is no longer a factor of any consequence. Hundreds of men who had not made up their minds a few weeks ago have come to me to volunteer the statement that they intended to act with the party, and each one has told of his friends or relatives who were going to do likewise. The purpose for which the bolting ticket was named, to serve as a bridge to bring recalcitrant Democrats over to the Republicans by easy stages, has been elected so far as it lay in the power of the promoters of the bolt to accomplish their sinister design; but they will be woefully disappointed at the scarcity of votes gained by such means for the Republican ticket."

"Despite the Palmer and Buckner ticket of '96, despite the fact that their complete possession of the election machinery of the State gave the Republicans the chance to count for themselves in the Democratic city of Louisville a plurality of 13,000, and in the Eleventh congressional district one of 16,000 in a total of close to a half million ballots, they could only land McKinley a winner by the beggarly margin of 281 votes."

"Now they would be glad to compromise on a stand-off in Louisville and 8,000 majority in the Eleventh district. But they will not begin to face this well, for we shall certainly carry the county plurality. I have no hesitation in predicting that he will be elected governor by from 25,000 to 30,000 votes, and the figures may go even higher."

James Reed Injured.

Mr. James Reed struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and tea and a half gallon of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave it any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Clay Court House, W. Va. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

The Board of Aldermen of Boston, Mass., will request Philadelphia to lend that city the Liberty Bell for the one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill, next July.

Many Thanks.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Tex. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

Because of the illness of Rev. Dr. Hartley Carmichael, the rectory of St. John's Episcopal Church, Richmond, has been declared vacant.

"If you scour the world you will never find a remedy equal to One Minute Cough Cure," says Editor Packler, of the Micanopy, Fla., "Hustler." It cured his family of La Grippe and saves thousands from pneumonia, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles. Howard Gardner.

For ten deaths and injuries by the Peck's Bridge disaster, at Bridgeport, Conn., the Sheldon Street Railway has paid $17,000.

Joseph Stockford, Hodgdon, Me., healed a sore running for seventeen years and cured his piles of long standing by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures all skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

Rafaele Ruberto, at New York, Monday, stuck out his tongue at Luigi Lugo, his playmate, who shot it off with a revolver.

President King, Farmers' Bank, Brooklyn, Mich., has used DeWitt's Little Early Risers in his family for years. Says they are the best. These famous little pills cure constipation, biliousness and all liver and bowel troubles. Howard Gardner.

Rev. J. A. Marsten, of Owensville, Ind., has been arrested, charged with violating the postal laws for a scheme to defraud.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. C. E. Holton will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is every where admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaint and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and sellable.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Total cost, four bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Harry-Belk Bros. Co. have something important to tell the Telegram readers in their change of address.

Mr. J. N. Longest, that prince of contractors, has charge of the work of reconstructing the burned Benbow. It is in competent hands.

Young men wishing to be instructed in the ordinary branches of education by special arrangement for a night class would do well to apply for information at the Telegram office. Make your application in writing and direct to editor Telegram. 10-4t

The Oak Ridge football team passed through this morning going to Chapel Hill, where they met the University team on the gridiron this afternoon. They have the strongest team they have had in years and were feeling confident of scoring against the Chapel Hillians.

The handsomest sidewalk show case in town is the one just received by Kaufmann, the men's outfitter and haberdasher. It is a beauty, standing on a handsome paneled oak base and all the case that is not glass is copper-covered. The inside fixtures for displaying goods, are nickel-plated. You can't fail to see it when he rolls it out.

TOBACCO NEWS.

Sales Today Were Fairly Good. Farmers Satisfied.

The sales on the market today were fairly good size and were made up by farmers from all parts of the country tributary to this market.

The prices were exceedingly good, in fact better than we have seen for a long time and the farmers went on their way home singing psalms to this market and we believe as the good news spreads the tobacco will come in from all sides. We verily believe Greensboro is the best market in the country take it one day with another, and the farmers are finding it out. This is proven by the gradual growth of this market. We sell more and more tobacco every year.

A. B. Bray, formerly of Bray Bros., left this morning for Statesville where he will do a general leaf tobacco business.

Mr. Bray is a fine tobaccoist and will have charge of the business of the American Tobacco Co. at that point. Manufacturers and leaf dealers wishing to have tobacco bought on the Statesville market will do well to place their business in his hands. We regret very much to give up so good a citizen and business young man as he is but our loss is Statesville's gain and we trust they will treat him well. If they don't we will welcome him back to the West City.

THE WEST MARKET MEETING.

Rev. P. J. Carraway Will Occupy the Pulpit Tonight.

The series of meetings at West Market Street church are still in progress. All the services have been well attended by large congregations, and the pastor, Dr. Rowe, has been doing some masterly preaching. Owing to deep cold which has effected his throat so that it is a great effort for him to talk, he has secured the services of Rev. P. J. Carraway to preach tonight and perhaps longer.

Dr. Carraway is a man of power and fervor in the pulpit and will doubtless preach to a large congregation tonight.

Dr. Rowe's indisposition is a matter of genuine regret. He is a preacher of massive mind and almost boundless scope. We do not deem it an exaggeration to say that he has few, if any, superiors, and West Market Street church is greatly blessed in his ministrations as pastor. All will hope that his cold and throat trouble will be of short duration.

Mr. Schofield Hurt.

Late yesterday afternoon Mr. J. W. Schofield, one of our efficient city mail carriers, was found lying in an unconscious condition near the railroad track on West Market street. Doctors were summoned and he was soon resuscitated, but it looked for awhile like he was seriously injured. One ear was torn nearly off and had to be sewed on. He was carried home, where today he is reported to be getting little right.

Mr. Schofield usually rides a wheel on his rounds, and it is supposed that he was coasting down the college hill when his bicycle ran away with him. The wheel was found lying a considerable distance from him. We hope that his injuries will prove to be slight and that he will soon be able to resume his route.

BURGLARS GALORE.

Somebody's House Entered Nearly Every Night.

The burglary business is becoming entirely too popular in Greensboro. One reason is that the city has not a sufficient number of policemen. With only three men on duty at night, and the entire time of one of them monopolized at the depot, it is an easy matter for a burglar with two or three confederates to keep an eye on the whereabouts of the officers and do his devilment unmolested.

Night before last the residence of Mr. John Andrews on Whittington street, was entered and a crate of apples, a carpet and small amount of money stolen. Another resident of the same vicinity lost some chickens the same night.

Last night the residence of Mr. Gouldin, on Lindsay street, was entered while he was at work and Mrs. Gouldin at church, and everything almost, in the house, turned topsyturvy. The thief was evidently in search of money, but found none. He, however, possibly for revenge, lifted an overcoat and a razor.

As we have remarked, these depredations are of too frequent occurrence. It cannot be charged that the police are not vigilant. For a city the size of Greensboro there should be twice as many police officers on duty at night.

THE BEST MINSTREL YET.

The Washburn Aggregation Last Night Went Head.

Washburn's Great Southern Minstrel Company was at the Academy of Music last night.

It is not too much to say that it was the best all-around minstrel show Raleigh has had this season and one of the best that has ever been here. Owing possibly to lack of proper advertising there were many vacant seats in the house, though the gallery was packed. Had the theatre-goers of Raleigh only dreamed of the good things on the bill there would not have been standing room.

From the opening overture to the last grotesque act the truly funny Brothers Hickman there was not a song, a dance or a joke that was not good. The orchestra was very fine and the specialties were simply splendid. There was a brightness and freshness about it all that lifted the performance out of the beaten path of ordinary minstrelsy and stamped it as new and original.

If Washburn ever comes up this place again he'll find a crowded house awaiting him.—News and Observer, 11th.

When You Buy Guns

and PISTOLS you want something that you can depend on—something with name and reputation back of it. The additional cost of a good gun or revolver over a cheaper article is very small compared with the satisfaction you get. Guns are bought for service and are not subject to changes in style, but can be used until worn out. For this reason their quality is of the highest importance and should be carefully looked into. We have big guns, little guns, guns of almost every kind, guns that will suit your fancy and purse.
